Re: Rowe Entertainment, Inc., v. The William Morris Agency, Inc., SDNY 98-CIV-8232

Dear Attorney Gary:

I write this letter in accordance with the provisions of Section 627.4137 of Florida Law, which requires your liability insurance carrier to provide certain statutorily required information to the undersigned pursuant to Section 627.4137 (1) (a) thru (e) within 30 days.

In particular, you were personally aware of the intentionally withheld evidence by Attorney Martin R. Gold that was acquired from Electronic Evidence Recovery, Inc., of Kirkland, Washington. This information contained the critically needed evidence that showed and proved racial disparity and discrimination as well as anti-trust violations by the defendants when they used the derogatory terms "niggers" 349 times, "coons" and other references to Plaintiffs and others.

The withheld evidence led to the granting of summary judgment for the defendants in the above captioned case. In addition, you breached your duty of fiduciary duty to the undersigned and other plaintiffs by conspiring with Martin Gold and upon information and belief, other persons which evidences a pattern and practice of professional misconduct which compromised and undermined the integrity of the Plaintiff's case.

I am demanding that you place your malpractice liability carrier and/or your insurance carrier that covers you for breaches of your fiduciary duties to your client and report the claims being asserted against you for malpractice and/or breaches of fiduciary duties to the undersigned client.

I await evidence of your compliance with the foregoing request that you place your insurance carrier on notice of the claims asserted herein against you along with the policy information of the insurance carrier that covered you at the time that your acts of professional misconduct, errors and omissions and/or breaches of fiduciary duty to the undersigned took place.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation and assistance in this matter. I remain;

Very truly yours

Leonard Rowe
